

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

MARCH 27, 1893.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. HOAR, from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Privileges and Elections, to whom were referred the credentials of Asahel C. Beckwith, claiming a seat in the Senate from the State of Wyoming, respectfully report:

The term of Mr. Warren, Senator from Wyoming, ended March 3, 1893. The Legislature of said State, who were, under Revised Statutes, sections 14, 15, entitled to elect his successor, on the — day of —, 1893, adjourned without an election. Thereupon the governor of Wyoming, on the 9th day of March, 1893, appointed Mr. Beckwith to hold the office of Senator until the next meeting of the Legislature.

We think said appointment valid for the reasons set forth in the report in the case of Mr. Mantle, claiming a seat from the State of Montana.

We recommend the adoption of the accompanying resolution.

Resolved, That Asahel C. Beckwith is entitled to be admitted to a seat as Senator from the State of Wyoming.
